marie claire presents THE WOMEN IN FILM SERIES

• IN ASSOCIATION WITH TRANSMISSION FILMS AND PALACE CINEMAS •

Brooklyn is a gripping drama which follows a young Irish woman, Eilis, who leaves her small town in Ireland hoping for a brighter future in 1950s Brooklyn. She falls in love with an Italian-American, Tony, who opens her eyes to her new surroundings. However, a series of unfortunate events leads Eilis back to Ireland, where her American sophistication catches the eye of the charming Jim.

Always a champion of women, we are celebrating strong females in film with the launch of the marie claire Women in Film series. We are offering FREE national screenings of Brooklyn before its official release date and you're invited!

Here's how you can secure a double pass to the event.

marie claire will present Brooklyn at
